

The Rules of the Playground

- The playground is an area for play and recreation.
- Elements of the playground are intended for children and should be used as intended.
- Children in the area of the playground should be only under the supervision of adults, who bear full responsibility for them.
- It is forbidden to bring and consume alcoholic beverages in the playground area.
- It is forbidden to climb on top structural elements.
- It is forbidden to bring glass containers.
- It is forbidden to bring in and ride bicycles.
- Parents or their guardians are responsible for damages caused by children.

EveRest